The band SonAires de la Frontera, which the old name was Son de la Frontera, brought out a new disc called Moroneando. Moroneando, flamenco fusion style, is a disc which is a change of Son de la Frontera and which goes on with the audible line of these universal flamenco sounds. The flamenco guitarist Paco de Amparo leads this change of Son de la Frontera with his new formation SonAires de la Frontera which goes on the flamenco fusion with the sound and the tradition of Diego del Gastor.
