The flamenco guitarist Juan Diego presents his second album in solo Respira (Breathe!). Recorded in the Long View Farm in Massachusetts studios, under the artistic production of Stephen A. Ruggere, is an unique bet to reach the most level of quality of the sound in this instrumental flamenco disc. There's also a fabulous team, working with the arranger and the Venezuelan composer Antonio Soteldo Musiquita, with the one who knew how to open new ways to flamenco guitar. All this is expressed in themes as seguiriya Musgo, the romance Degaussing or the bulería Malika.

As Jorge Pardo wrote in the booklet, the new album of Juan Diego "has the sound of Jerez that look at the horizon, and even farthest".
